LOUD WEEK® RETURNS — MIAMI GARDENS IGNITES WITH ART, FASHION, AND CULTURE DURING MIAMI ART WEEK 2025

MIAMI GARDENS, FL (October 2025) — LOUD Love of Urban Design® proudly announces the return of LOUD Week, taking place December 3–6, 2025, during Art Basel/Miami Art Week — a global celebration of art and culture that draws millions to South Florida each year.

Now in its 5th year, LOUD Week has become one of Miami’s most talked-about urban art and fashion experiences — merging artistry, equity, fashion, and cultural innovation into an immersive four-day celebration that amplifies diverse voices and transforms Miami Gardens into the epicenter of urban creativity.

“LOUD Week™ is a movement. It’s where the boldness of our culture meets the brilliance of creative expression,” said Dr. Karine Melissa, Founder and Co-Owner of LOUD Love of Urban Design®. “We’ve built a platform that gives artists, designers, and entrepreneurs from our communities a global stage to live ARTistically LOUD — unapologetically and creatively.”

The 2025 theme, BLOOM, commemorates five transformative years of LOUD producing world-class fashion and art experiences that celebrate the power of community and creativity. This milestone edition will feature art activations, live performances, high-level panels, marketplace pop-ups, and a bold runway show that redefines urban luxury and expression.

Miami Gardens Councilwoman Linda Julien (Seat 5), a long-time advocate for small business, economic impact, and creative entrepreneurship, has been a driving force behind LOUD's continued success in the city.

"We're incredibly proud to welcome LOUD Week™ back to Miami Gardens," said Julien. "This event has become a cultural anchor — bringing global attention, economic impact, and community pride to our city."

With support from the City of Miami Gardens, Art of Black Miami - Greater Miami Convention and Visitors Bureau, The Miami Foundation, FP&L, LOUD Week™ continues to champion the intersection of art, equity, and opportunity — spotlighting artists, designers, and brands from across the globe.
