

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
PRESS RELEASE
PHOTO ASSETS

LOVE OF URBAN DESIGN LOUD WEEK® WILL RETURN NEXT MONTH FOR MIAMI ART WEEK WITH “BLOOM” RUNWAY SHOW & ART EXHIBIT, CELEBRATING BLACK CULTURE, STYLE & CREATIVITY

TICKETS: <https://www.loveofurbandesign.com/events>

MIAMI GARDENS, Fla. — Love of Urban Design® proudly announces the return of LOUD Week, taking place December 3–6, 2025 during Art Basel/Miami Art Week, delivering four days of captivating entertainment, art and fashion events that draw thousands of visitors and millions of impressions to the South Florida region to celebrate Black and Caribbean creativity, art, style and culture. The Main Event of LOUD Week 2025 will commence on Saturday, Dec. 6th, 2025 at 6 p.m. at Miami Gardens City Hall with top celebrities, artists, designers, creators, influencers, media and art lovers alike.

Now in its fifth year, LOUD Week has become one of Miami's most talked-about urban art and fashion festivals merging artistry, equity, fashion, and cultural innovation into an immersive four-day celebration that amplifies diverse voices and transforms Miami Gardens into the epicenter of urban creativity. "LOUD Week™ is a movement in which the boldness of our culture meets the brilliance of creative expression," said Dr. Karine Melissa, founder and co-owner of LOUD Love of Urban Design®. "We've built a platform that gives artists, designers, and entrepreneurs from our communities a global stage to live ARTistically LOUD — unapologetically and creatively. And this year's Main Event Runway Show and Art Exhibit on Dec. 6th will be one of the biggest and most creative events of the Art Basel season."

The 2025 theme for this year's epic Miami Art Week festival in Miami Gardens will be BLOOM, commemorating five transformative years of LOUD producing world-class fashion and art shows and interactive experiences that celebrate the power of community and creativity. "We're excited to celebrate this major milestone with even bigger art activations, live performances, high-level panels, marketplace pop-ups, and a bold runway show that redefines urban luxury and expression. It's our belief that every brush stroke tells a story. Every color is a voice. At LOUD Week, we don't just make art — we make statements," Dr. Melissa continued.

This year's LOUD Week is made possible with support from Miami Gardens Councilwoman Linda Julien \(Seat 5\), who is a long-time advocate for small business, economic impact, and creative entrepreneurship. She has been a driving force behind LOUD's continued success in the city. "We're incredibly proud to welcome LOUD Week™ back to Miami Gardens. This event has become a cultural anchor, bringing global attention, economic impact, and community pride to our city," Julien stated.

This year's LOUD Week festival is made possible by the support from its sponsors & partners: City of Miami Gardens, Miami Gardens Councilwoman Linda Julien, Art of Black Miami - Greater Miami Convention and Visitors Bureau, The Miami Foundation, Arts & Business Council of Miami, FP&L, Key Connection Properties, CoSpace, and

The Creators Summit Tallahassee. “LOUD Week™ is an innovative urban cultural art & fashion festival that is dedicated to championing local art, equity, and opportunity for local and globally recognized Black artists, designers, and brands that drive the culture and trends. At LOUD Week™, self-expression isn’t just encouraged — it’s celebrated. From bold paintings to captivating runway fashion, our culture commands attention and speaks volumes,” Dr. Melissa continued.

The official fashion designer lineup will include House of Postiche, House of Saint Vision, J Cash Jewels, with many more designers to be announced in the coming weeks.

Visual artists debuting stunning new pieces of art at this year’s LOUD Week Main Event Fashion Runway Show & Art Exhibit include Miami-based canvas artist, The Real E Gram, whose art has been popularized by Rick Ross and Philadelphia’s very own legendary rapper Freeway. In addition, Miami-based talented artists Lump (@LavishNLooney), Kenneth “Art Monster” Hump, Sakana Walls and Palm Beach-based contemporary mixed media artist Christie Toussaint will debut new artwork at this year’s Dec. 6th Main Event.

PHOTO CREDIT: Christie Toussaint
DESIGNER & ARTIST PHOTOS

Miami Gardens Councilwoman Linda Julien \(Seat 5\), who is a long-time advocate for small business, economic impact, and creative entrepreneurship, has been a driving force behind LOUD's continued success in the city. "We're incredibly proud to welcome LOUD Week™ back to Miami Gardens. This event has become a cultural anchor, bringing global attention, economic impact, and community pride to our city," Julien stated.

This year's LOUD Week festival is made possible by the support from its sponsors & partners: City of Miami Gardens, Miami Gardens Councilwoman , Co, Art of Black Miami - Greater Miami Convention and Visitors Bureau, The Miami Foundation, Arts & Business Council of Miami, FP&L, Key Connection Properties, CoSpace, and The Creators Summit Tallahassee. "LOUD Week™ is an innovative urban cultural art & fashion festival that is dedicated to championing local art, equity, and opportunity for local and globally recognized Black artists, designers, and brands that drive the culture and trends. At LOUD Week™, self-expression isn't just encouraged — it's celebrated. From bold paintings to captivating runway fashion, our culture commands attention and speaks volumes," Dr. Melissa continued. Additional sponsors & participating brands collaborating with Love of Urban Design for LOUD Week 2025 include Chic's Juice Bar, Misfit Cupcakes, SLP Essentials Soap and more.

OFFICIAL LOUD WEEK 2025 EVENTS

- Wednesday, December 3rd, 2025 at 6 p.m. at Miami Gardens City Hall: LOUD™ Bloom: Opening Reception & Honors Cocktail Party Tickets available online
- Thursday, December 4th, 2025 at 6:30 p.m. at Miami Gardens City Hall: LOUD™ Vibes hosted by Co-Space Roots & Revival Tickets available online
- Friday, December 5th, 2025 at 11 a.m. at TopGolf Miami Gardens: The Creator Summit Round Table and Brunch hosted by Florida A&M University \(FAMU\) - Tickets available online
- Saturday, December 6th, 2025 at 6 p.m. at Miami Gardens City Hall: The Main Event LOUD Week Fashion Show & Art Exhibit -- tickets available here

ABOUT LOUD LOVE OF URBAN DESIGN®

LOUD Love of Urban Design® is a cultural movement and creative platform founded by Dr. Karine Melissa that amplifies the voices of artists, designers, and entrepreneurs shaping the future of urban culture. Rooted in creativity, equity, and community impact, LOUD™ produces immersive experiences—most notably LOUD Week™ during Miami Art Week, blending art, fashion, and innovation to celebrate the brilliance of diverse creators. LOUD™ stands at the intersection of culture and commerce, empowering the next generation to live out LOUD™—boldly, unapologetically, and with purpose. Learn more on www.loveofurbandesign.com.

Press and Media Coverage:

LOUD Week™ attracts international attention from cultural, fashion, and art media. Press credentials, interviews, and coverage opportunities are available upon application review and approval. Authentic media members and photographers can apply now on the LOUD Week press pass request form.

Sponsorship & Artist Participation:

Brands, designers, organizations and enterprise sponsorships are invited to collaborate as official partners, vendors, and sponsors. Learn more about LOUD Week's reach and partnership options here. Fashion designers, artists and other organizations can fill out interest forms online.

Media Contact

Savory PR

Samantha@Savory-PR.com

###